Accessing Boards

After signing in, users access their boards where tasks and goals are organized. Boards provide an overview of projects and help users keep track of their work.

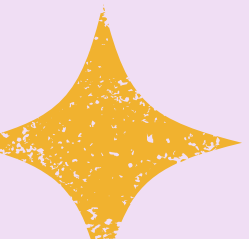

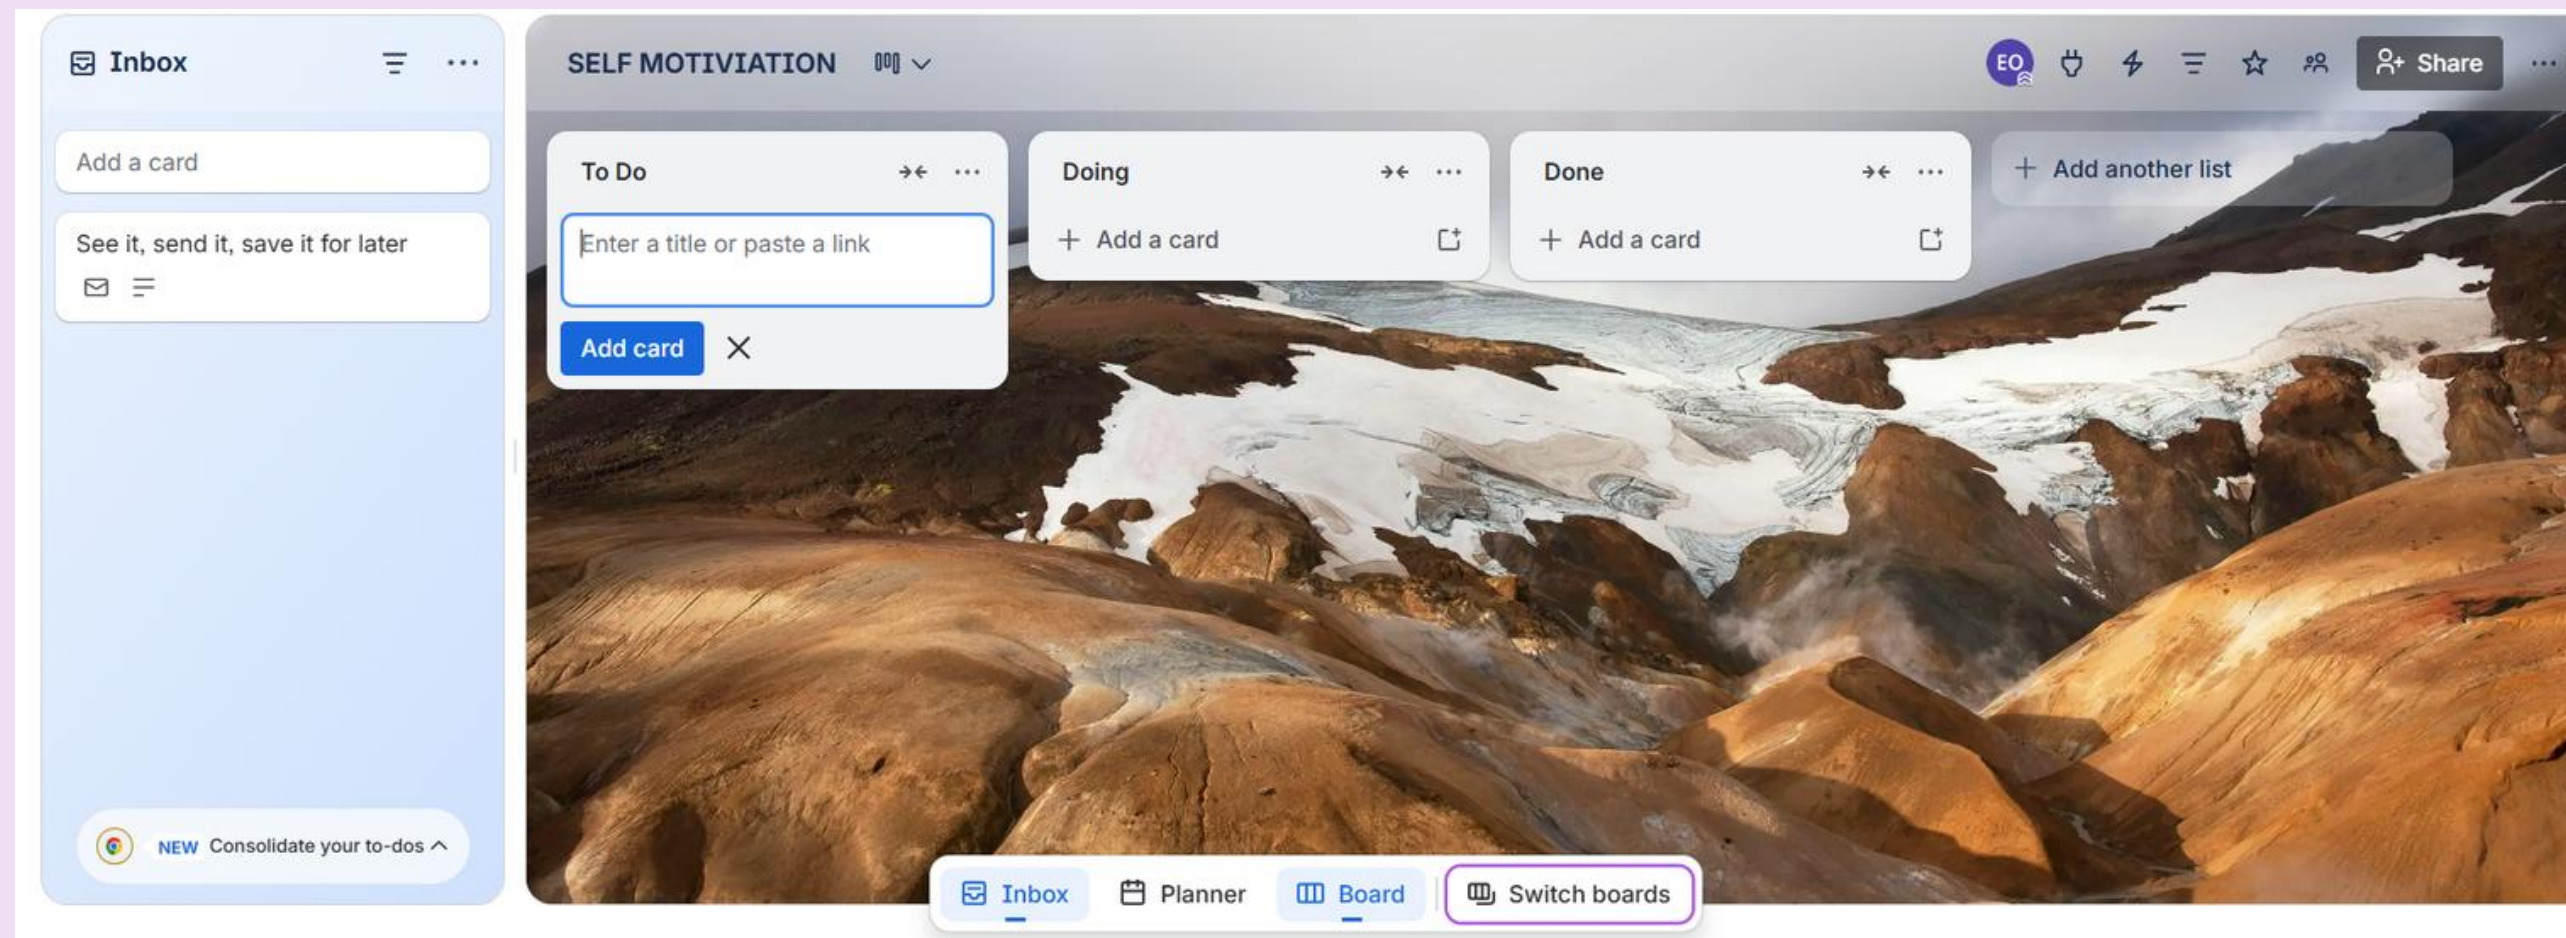

Organizing Work with Lists

Boards can be divided into lists, such as To Do, In Progress, and Completed, which help users clearly structure their tasks and workflow.

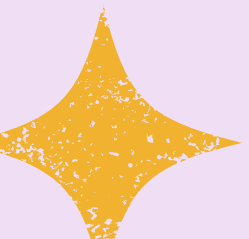

Tasks as Cards

Tasks are added as cards that can include descriptions, deadlines, and checklists to break larger goals into smaller, manageable steps.

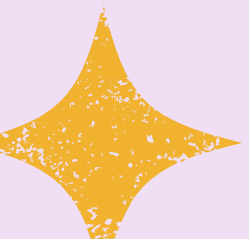

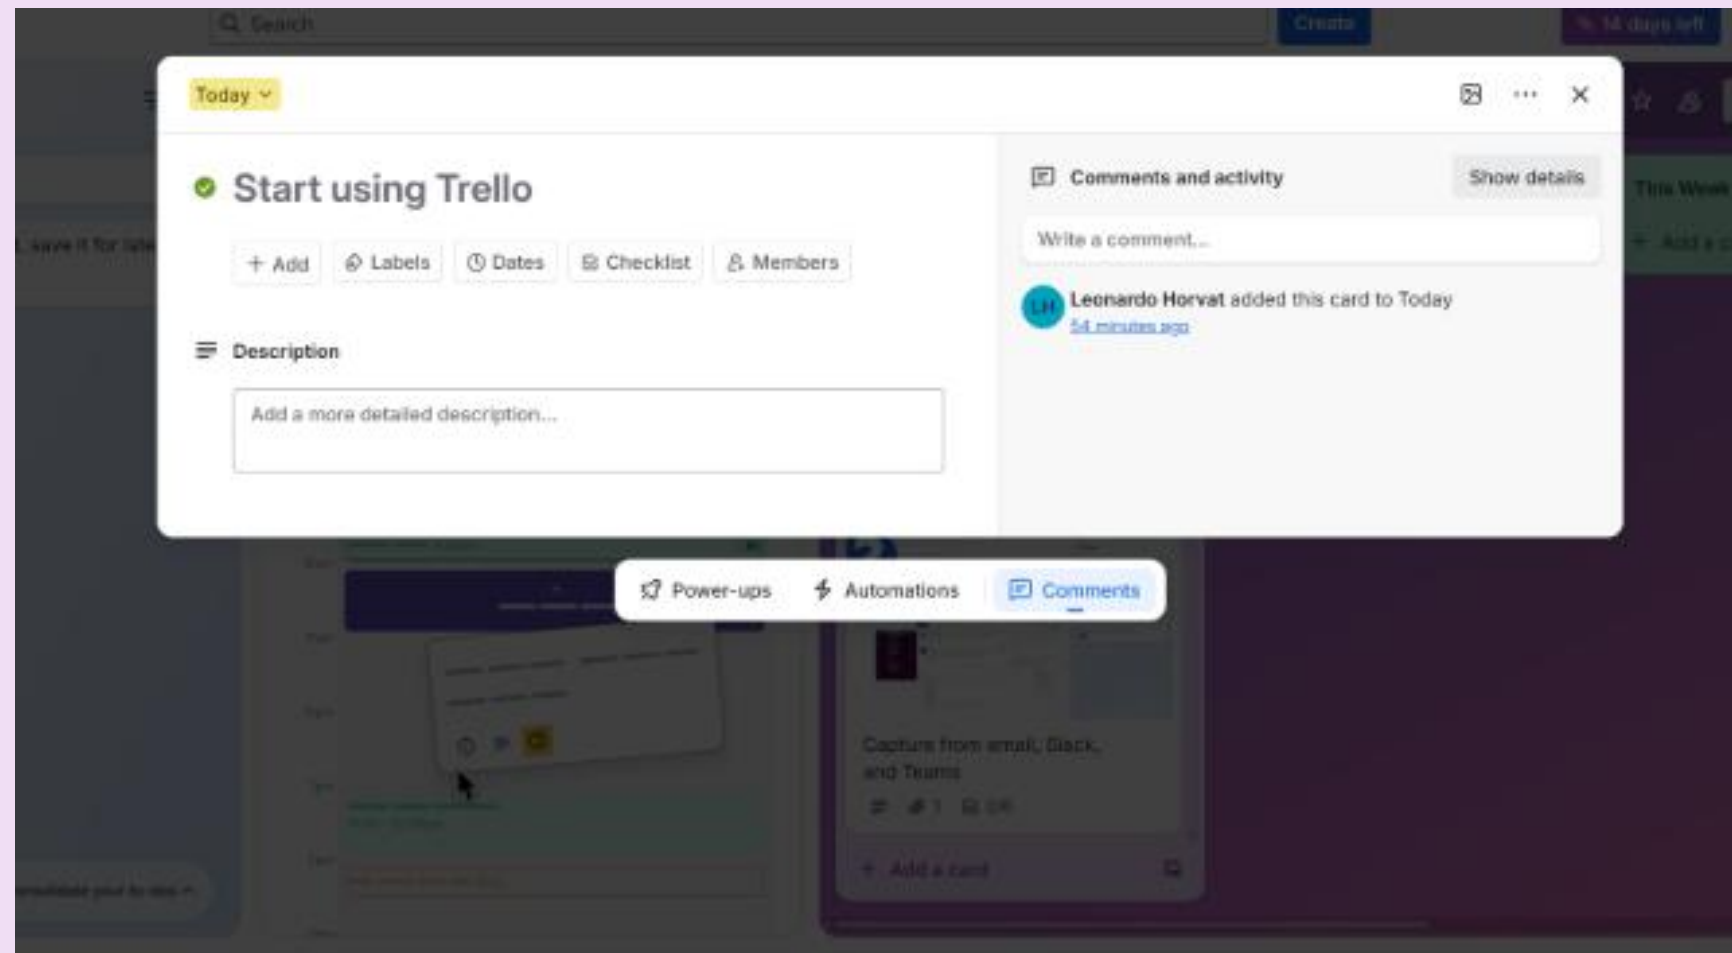

Tracking Progress

Cards can be moved between lists as tasks are completed, visually showing progress and helping users stay organized.

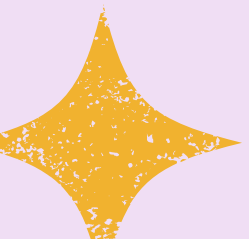

Developing Skills and Motivation

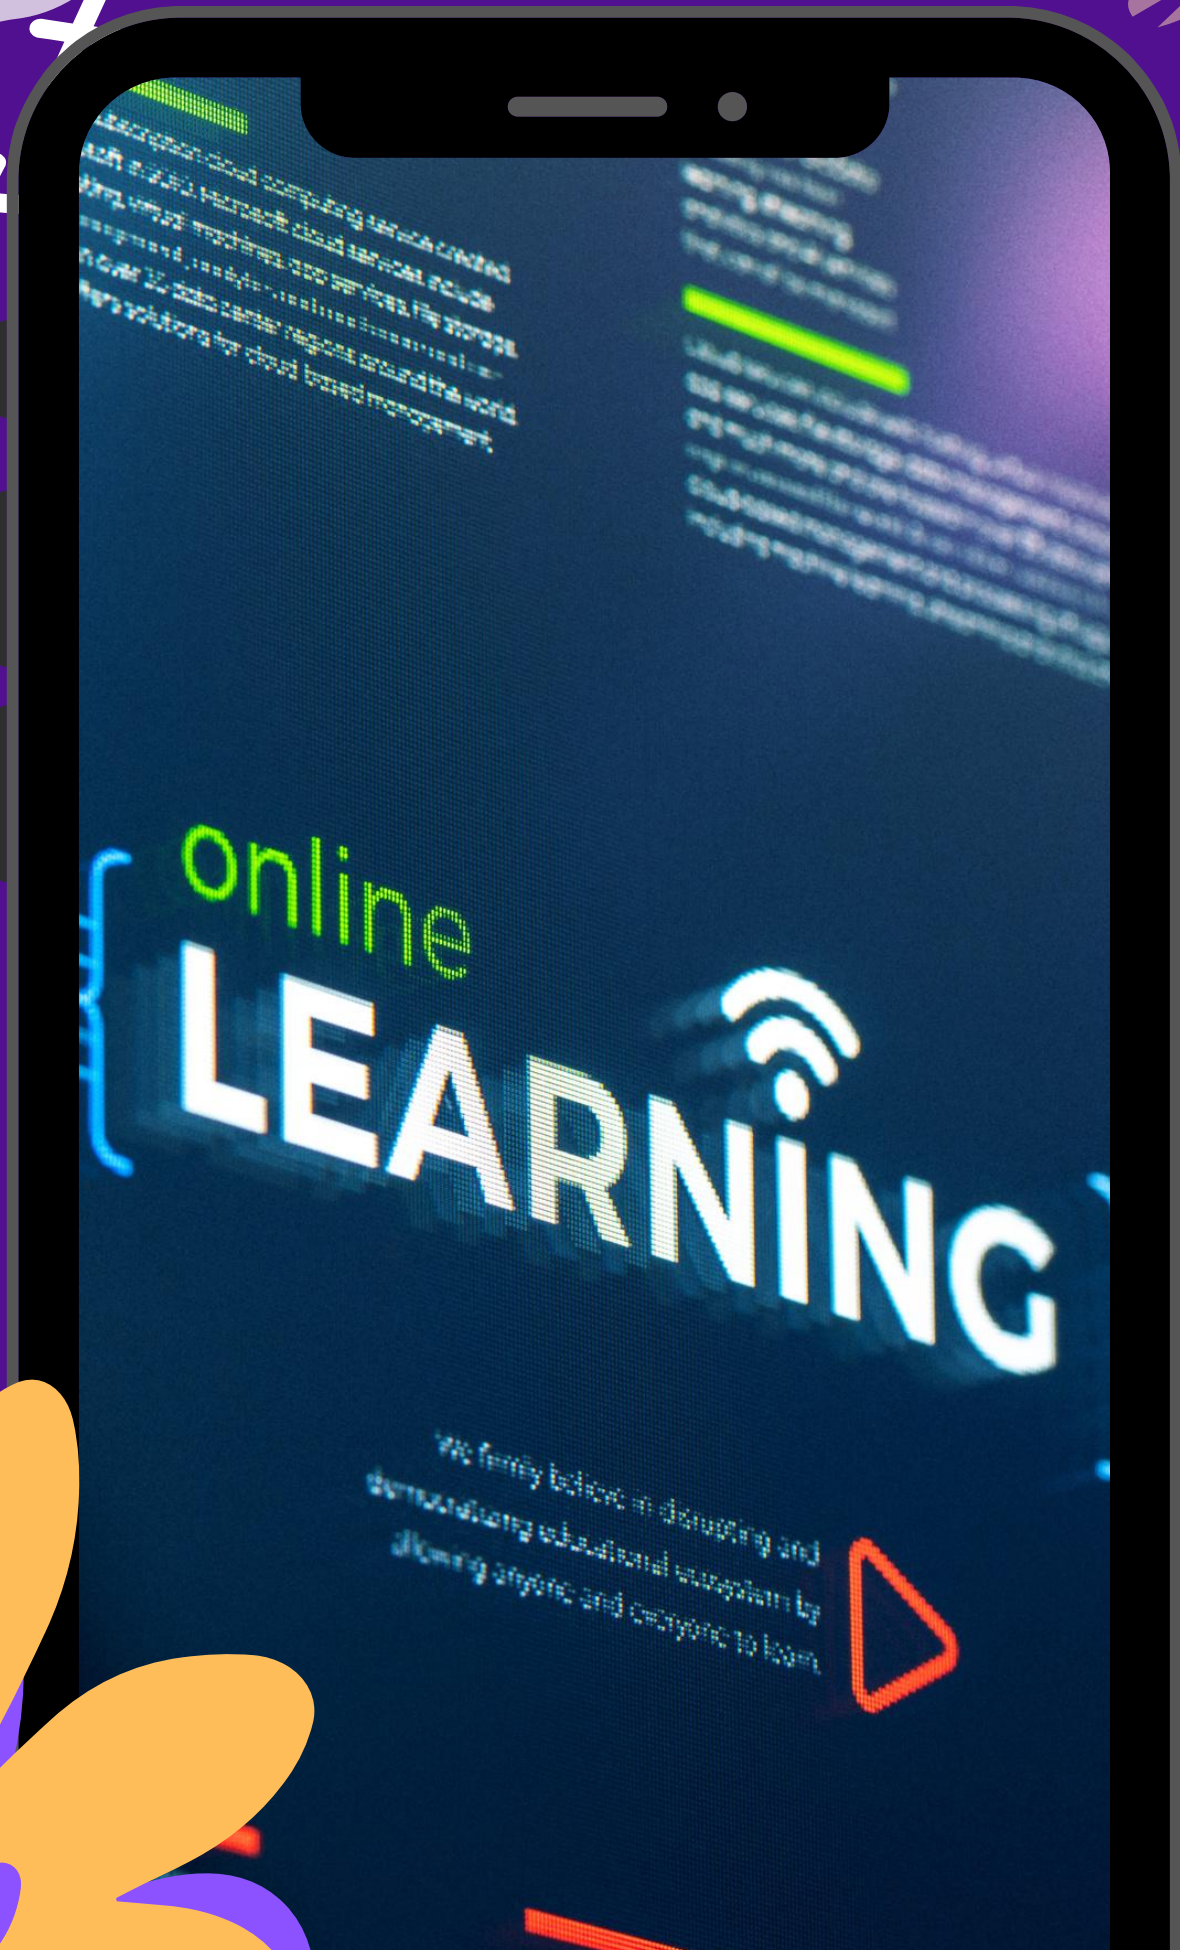

Seeing tasks completed helps users stay motivated and develop skills such as organization and planning.

Time and Goal Management

Overall, Trello helps users manage their time, set goals, and stay focused on completing their tasks.
